

INDEX TO VOLUME LXXXVII.

- 'America and Europe,' Schurz, 191.
- 'America, The English in,' Doyle's, 329.
- 'Anselm of Canterbury, St.,' Rigg's, 383.
- 'Balladists,' Geddie's, 186.
- 'Banks, Peoples,' Wolff's, 192.
- 'Banqueting House, In the,' Pearse's, 164.
- 'Bases of Religious Belief,' Upton's, 270.
- 'Batoum to Baghdad,' Harris's, 388.
- 'Bible and the East,' Conder's, 166.
- 'Bible, Modern Readers,' Moulton's, 383.
- Blackie & Son's Publications, 397.
- 'Bohemia,' Maurice's, 172.
- 'Briseis,' Black's, 180.
- 'Burns Centenary in Poorhouse,' 187.
- 'Burns, Robert,' MacCulloch's, 186.
- Butler, Gladstone's, 247; contents of the volumes, 249; Notes and Studies, 251; Butler's 'Censors,' 253; partially defective treatment, 255; 'necessity and determinism,' 257; reply to Hume, 259; probability and moral obligation, 261; as to the knowledge of God, 263; the future life, 265; eternity and universalism, 267; Mr. Gladstone and the Duke of Argyll, 269.
- 'Butler, Studies Subsidiary to the Works of Bishop,' Gladstone's, 247.
- 'Butler, Works of Joseph,' Gladstone's, 247.
- 'Caleb and Becky,' Parsons', 395.
- 'Carnegie, Kate,' Ian Maclaren's, 392.
- 'Chartered Companies, Early, 1296-1858,' Causton's, 95.
- Chartered Companies, English, 95; Henry the Seventh's Commercial Policy, 97; American Colonies, 99; Province of Carolana, 101; East India Company, 103; Naval Supremacy in Indian Waters, 105; Hudson's Bay Company, 107; humane policy, 109; treatment of the Indians, 111.
- 'Christian, Why be a,' Dods', 382.
- 'Church, Charter of the,' Forsyth's, 205.
- 'City of Refuge,' Besant's, 393.
- 'Cliff's Yacht, Mrs.,' Stockton's, 394.
- 'Clog Shop Chronicles,' Ackworth's, 395.
- 'Confidences, My,' Locker-Lampson's, 17.
- 'Confidences of a Society Poet,' 17; Mr. Locker's parentage, 19; home and school life, 21; official life and happy marriage, 23; delightful sketches of celebrities, 25; Dean Stanley and literary critiques, 27; characteristic notes of his poetry, 29; sportive and pensive verse, 31.
- 'Constitutions in Europe and America, Adoption and Amendment of,' Borgeaud's, 193.
- 'Cornhill Magazine,' 185.
- 'Critical Review,' vol. vi., 383.
- 'Crown of Straw,' Upward's, 181.
- 'Cure of Souls,' John Watson's, 380.
- 'Davy, Humphry, Poet and Philosopher,' Thorpe's, 311.
- 'Davy, Life of Sir H.,' Paris's, 311.
- 'Davy, Memoirs and Life of Sir H.,' Davy's, 311.

- Davy, Sir Humphry, 311; not a brilliant boy, 313; the youth roused up, 315; youthful self-confidence, 317; researches in glass, 319; lecturer at the Royal Institution, 321; immense popularity, 323; memoir on chlorine, 325; safety lamp, 327.
- Democracy and Liberty, 137; lack of philosophic temper, 139; golden age of English politics, 141; sombre colours, 143; national character and political life, 145; soundness of English electorate, 147; shifting clouds and abiding earth, 149; dangers of democracy, 151; remedies proposed, 153; the referendum, 155; springs of Socialism, 157; hopeful outlook, 159.
- 'Democracy and Liberty,' Lecky's, 173.
- 'Democracy, Christian,' Leavitt's, 167.
- 'Deuteronomy,' Moulton's, 168.
- 'Dialogue of the Seraphic Virgin, Catherine of Siena,' Thorold's, 114.
- 'Dictionary, New English,' Murray's, vol. iii., 197.
- 'Dissertations, Two,' Hort's, 53.
- 'Disturbing Elements,' Birch-enough's, 183.
- 'Ecclesia, my Lady,' Matheson's, 395.
- 'Elijah the Prophet, and other Poems,' Moon's, 188.
- 'Ellerton, John,' Housman's, 386.
- 'En Route,' Huysman's, 179.
- 'England, Beginnings of New,' Fiske's, 329.
- 'England, Compendious History of New,' Palfrey's, 329.
- 'England, History of New,' 1630—1649, Winthrop's, 328.
- 'English Constitutional History,' Taswell-Langmead's, 173.
- 'English Colonies in America, Short History of,' Lodge's, 329.
- 'English in America,' Doyle's, 329.
- 'Ethics, Christian,' Strong's, 160.
- 'Evangelical Alliance, History of,' Arnold's, 391.
- 'Evil and Evolution,' 380.
- 'Excellency's English Governess, His,' Grier's, 184.
- 'Expositor,' fifth series, vol. iii., 171.
- 'Expository Times,' vol. vii., 383.
- 'Fellow Travellers,' Travers's, 184.
- 'Forward, Robert,' Lindsay's, 189.
- 'Gleanings in the Gospels,' Burton's, 382.
- 'Gloria Christi,' Fennimore's, 381.
- 'Gospel Questions and Answers,' Denney's, 382.
- 'Grey Man,' Crockett's, 394.
- 'Hannah,' Dawson's, 395.
- Hare's Story of my Life, 285; Hares of Hurstmonceaux, 287; Francis Hare's early life and marriage, 289; Augustus Hare and his wife, 291; the Maurice family, 293; family portraits, 295; a child's sorrows, 297; a unique character, 299; Landor and Jowett, 301; travels in Italy, 303; Ruskin and Stanley, 305; two quaint characters, 307; Lady Augusta Stanley and other friends, 309.
- 'Hawtrey, Memoir of E. C.,' Thackeray's, 175.
- 'Hornby, Sir Geoffrey Phipps,' Eger-ton's, 177.
- Holmes, Life and Letters of O. W., 77; home life and religious influences, 79; first literary success, 81; medical student and practitioner, 83; professor of anatomy, 85; autocrat of the breakfast-table, 87; place as a poet, 89; Saturday Club, 91; religious opinions and teaching' 93.
- 'Holmes, Oliver Wendell,' Jerrold's, 77.
- 'Holmes, Life and Letters of O. W.,' Morse's, 77.
- Hort, Dr., and the Cambridge School, 53; Cambridge thinkers and theologians, 55; Dr. Hort's training and university successes, 57; extreme fastidiousness as to preaching, 59; regrets over his unproductiveness, 61; value of his life work, 63; Dr. Hort's theological views, 65; variation from supposed orthodoxy, 67; relation to Wesleyan Methodism, 69; leaders of the Cambridge School, 71; Dr. Hort's Hulsean lectures, 73; characteristics of the Cambridge School, 75.
- 'Hort, Life and Letters of Dr.,' Hort's, 53.
- 'Hymns, Treasury of,' Horder's, 188.
- 'Humble Enterprise, A,' Cambridge's 181.
- 'Idyllists of the Country Side,' Ell-wanger's, 196.

- 'Jesus Christ, Influence on Work and Workers,' Unsworth's, 165.
- 'Jewish Life in the Middle Ages,' Abraham's, 390.
- 'Joubert, Pensées of,' Attwell's, 187.
- 'Judaism, Studies in,' Schechter's, 389.
- 'Judaistic Christianity,' Hort's, 53.
- 'Land o' the Leal,' Lyall's, 395.
- 'Leonis Papae XIII.,' 205.
- 'Life and Christ,' Jenkins', 163.
- 'Magnalia Christi Americana,' Mather's, 328.
- 'Massachusetts Historical Society, Collections of,' 328.
- 'Massachusetts Bay from 1628 to 1691, History of Colony of,' Hutchinson's, 328.
- 'Matilda and the Cloister of Hellfde,' Bevan's, 113.
- 'Mere Stories,' Clifford's, 185.
- 'Methodism, Popular History of,' Telford's, 391.
- 'Monastic Life, from Fathers of the Desert to Charlemagne,' Allies', 114.
- 'Monuments, Land of the,' Pollock's, 389.
- 'Nahum, Habbakuk, Zephaniah,' Davidson's, 383.
- Nelson & Sons' Publications, 396.
- 'Nuova Antologia,' July 1 to August 1, 202-3; September 16 to October 1, 400.
- 'Old Stories Retold,' 179.
- 'Old Testament and Modern Life,' Brooke's, 168.
- 'Old Testament History for Schools,' Stokoe's, 170.
- 'Open Face, With,' Bruce's, 379.
- 'Pilgrim Fathers of New England,' Brown's, 328.
- 'Poems,' C. G. Rossetti's, 1.
- 'Poems, New,' C. Rossetti's, 1.
- Policy, Growth of British, 32; material action of State upon State, 33; Hapsburg marriages, 35; Queen Elizabeth and her suitors, 37; counter reformation, 39; England's insular life, 41; Stuart policy of family aggrandisement, 43; England and the Netherlands, 45; effect of Cromwell's death, 47; policy of Charles II. and James II., 49; England's debt to William III., 51.
- 'Policy, Growth of British,' Seeley's, 32.
- 'Portsmouth Slum, Ten Years in a,' Dolling's, 194.
- 'Prayers of St. Paul,' Pope's, 165.
- 'Puritan in England and New England, The,' Byington's, 328.
- Puritan Settlements in New England, The, 328; English Colony at Leyden, 329; Pilgrim Fathers, 331; W. Bradford and W. Brewster, 333; Miles Standish—New England scenery, 335; immigration of 1629, 337; Winthrop and Cotton, 339; influence of Plymouth upon Salem, 341; centripetal and centrifugal forces, 343; controversies—Roger Williams and Mrs. Hutchinson, 345; Baptists and Quakers—the half-way covenant, 347; Connecticut and New Haven—the Blue Laws, 349; the Indians—Philip's War, 351; tyranny of Andros—deliverance, 353.
- 'Quaker Worthies,' Horder's, 174.
- 'Religious Faith,' Hughes', 381.
- 'Reminiscences,' Macduff's, 387.
- 'Review, Methodist,' July—August, 203.
- 'Review, Methodist,' M. E. C. South, July—August, 204.
- 'Revue des Deux Mondes,' June 15—August 15, 198—202; October 1—November 1, 398—9.
- 'Rossetti, C. G., Brief Memoir of,' Proctor's, 2.
- Rossettis, The, 1; a refugee family, 3; mother and children, 5; D. G. Rossetti and E. A. Poe, 7; delight in sensuous beauty, 9; Miss Rossetti's health and work, 11; Miss Rossetti's lover, 13; a broadening and deepening life, 15.
- 'Rossetti, D. G.: Family Letters,' 1.
- 'Rossetti, D. G.: Works of,' 1.
- 'Rowan's Trust, John,' Edwards', 395.
- 'Rumsey's Patient, Dr.,' Meade's, 181.
- 'Savonarola, Life and Times of,' Villari's, 178.
- 'Scripture and its Witnesses,' Banks', 164.
- 'Singular Life, A.,' Phelps', 182.
- Selborne, Earl, 355; the Roundells, 357; model parish clergyman, 359; his father, 361; W. Palmer, the

- High Churchman, 363; outcome of W. Palmer's career, 365; his sisters, 367; crisis of his life, 369; marriage, 371; churchmanship, 373; Sabbath question, 375; Lord Aberdeen and Arthur Gordon, 377.
- 'Selborne's Memorials, Earl,' part i., 355.
- Sheridan, 230; former biographies of Sheridan, 231; Sheridan ancestry, 233; early years and early marriage, 235; his comedies, 237-9; public career, 241; death of his wife, 243; Sheridan and Burns, 245.
- 'Sheridan; a Biography,' Rae's, 230.
- 'Siberia, Across,' Wemyss's, 391.
- 'Smith of Coalville, George,' Hodder's, 389.
- 'Sociology, Introduction to,' Fairbanks's, 192.
- 'Story of My Life,' A. J. C. Hare's, 285.
- 'Story of My Life,' Temple's, 386.
- 'Table Talk of Jesus,' Jackson's, 382.
- Theistic Speculations, New, 270; author's general position, 271; other writers of similar views, 273; Divine and human one, 275; latent Pantheism, 277; consequences, 279; effect on other doctrines, 281; extreme positions, 283.
- 'Theology, Introduction to,' Cave's, 383.
- 'Things to Live For,' Miller's, 382.
- 'Thorold, Life and Work of Bishop,' Simpkinson's, 178.
- 'Tressady, Sir George,' Ward's, 392.
- 'United States,' Goldwin Smith's, 329.
- 'United States, Commentaries on Constitution of,' Foster's, 189.
- 'United States, Legislation of Congress for,' Farrand's, 190.
- 'United States of America, 1765-1865,' Channing's, 171.
- 'United States of America, Religion in the,' Baird's, 329.
- Unity, Problem of Christian, 205; goal must be faced, 207; idea of outward unification, 209; Pope's Bull on Anglican Orders, 211; cords of ecclesiastical uniformity, 213; principles of modern Anglicanism, 215; Dr. Arnold's view, 217; Wesley's ordinations for America, 219; the Anglican demand, 221; chief hindrance to unity, 223; difficulties in the way, 225; what may be hopefully attempted, 227; two Bishops on Christian unity, 229.
- 'Unity, Principles of Ecclesiastical,' Mason's, 205.
- 'Verses,' C. G. Rossetti's, 1.
- 'Way, the Truth, and the Life, The,' Hort's, 53.
- Woman under Monasticism, 113; mother age, 115; Rome's concessions to popular superstition, 117; Queen Radegund and her convent, 119; nuns at war, 121; convents founded by royal ladies, 123; Hild and Credmon at Whitby, 125; Wilfrith and Cuthbert, 127; life in the convent, 129; a career for noble ladies, 131; Gilbert of Sempringham, 133; Catherine of Siena, 135.
- 'Woman under Monasticism,' Eckenstein's, 113.
- 'Young Man Master of Himself,' Farrar's, 382.
- 'Zinzendorf, Count,' Bovet's & Seed's, 173.

